

11 June 1979

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director, Economic Research

SUBJECT : Request Permission to Address
College Course

I hereby request permission to address a class at the Alexandria Campus of the Northern Virginia Community College on 14 June 1979. The lecture topic will be "China's Economy: 1949-Present" and the material used will be totally unclassified. My affiliation with the CIA will be known.

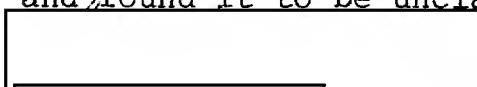

China Economy Branch
China Division, OER

STATINTL

Attachment:

An outline of my proposed lecture.

STATINTL I have reviewed this outline
and found it to be unclassified.

CH/C/EC

STATINTL

SUBJECT: Request Permission to Address
College Course

APPROVE:
STATINTL

Director, Economic Research

12 JUN 1979
Date

CONCUR:

STATINTL

for Director of Security

13 JUN 1979
Date

STATINTL

CONCUR:

for Coordinator for Academic Relations

13 JUN 1979
Date

Distribution:

Orig - Addressee,
and return to OER/AS

- 1 - D/OS
- 1 - NFAC/CAR
- 1 - A/DCI/PA
- 1 - D/OER
- 2 - OER/AS
- 1 - D/C
- 1 - C/EC

OER/D/C/EC/

STATINTL

STATINTL

Approved For Release 2005/01/10 : CIA-RDP86B00985R000400060037-3
Office of Economic Research

Lecture Outline: China's Economy Since 1949

- I. Introduction
 - A. Contrast problems of planned economy with those of market economy
 - B. Point out that China had to establish basic element of planned economy concomitantly with overcoming economic problems of the 1940s.
- II. Early stages of economic development (1949-1958)
 - A. Pre-takeover state of economy
 - 1. Hyper-inflation
 - 2. War damage
 - 3. Economic dualism
 - B. Early economic measures -- Soviet pattern
 - 1. Land-reform
 - 2. Take-over of commercial apparatus
 - C. Rapid improvements
 - 1. Result of political stability
 - 2. Importation of foreign -- Soviet -- technology
- III. The Great Leap (1958-1963)
 - A. Politics involved
 - B. Effect of policy
 - C. Climatic conditions exacerbate economic problems
 - D. Sino-Soviet gap

- IV. Move toward Moderation 1963-1966
 - A. Policies fostered as result of Great Leap problems
 - B. Initial impact
- V. Mao's Cultural Revolution (1966-1969)
 - A. Initial purpose
 - B. Economic fluctuation
 - C. Effect on foreign trade
- VI. Post-Cultural Revolution (1969-1976)
 - A. Political aberrations -- moderates vs leftist
 - B. State of economy
 - 1. Domestic
 - 2. International trade
 - C. Demise of Gang -- impact of cultural revolution
- VII. Deng Xiaoping -- economic pragmatism (1976-present)
 - A. Material Incentives
 - B. Open door to west
 - C. Recent retrenchment